FOREWORD

The 1966 Carontawan is published to recreate for Mansfield students the college year of 1965-1966. This year has been one of trials and frustrations for some; for others it has been a year of happiness and triumph.

We have been brought together on this "eastern hill" to build our intellectual community. We are part of an institution of higher learning, sharing experiences that will enhance future pathways.

During this particular academic year, our college community has been characterized by changes. The changes in appearance have been quite dramatic with the opening of two new dormitories and the near completion of a field house. This betterment of college facilities has brought the inevitable inconveniences — temporary bridges, walkways, dirt and mud, construction hazards, parking problems. All of these are a foreshadowing of progress.

A most significant change has been the addition of a graduate school with its emphasis centered upon the granting of a Master of Education degree in elementary and music education.

These many changes point toward the new heights that our intellectual community is capable of achieving. We have in this 1965-1966 college year made a tremendous stride forward for Mansfield State College, high upon the eastern hill.

STUDENT LIFE . . .

The crowning moment

Winter fun

That was a rough final

Our fans await us

The decline of Rome

A gridiron star?

Wouldn't it be easier to buy our paints?

Path to success

Do you want to wash?

Another day — another class

I told you she'd never believe us.

I know mother said, "come straight home".

Help! My arm's stuck!

Engaged? Who, me?

Isn't studying fun?

They call this art!

Hey, Jim, the court's straight ahead . . .

The athletes "bone-up"

Ma, he's makin' eyes at me!

Sack rats

You didn't!

All this work to trap a gus

A woman's work is never done

Camera hog

This will impress them

Absolute comfort

There's that photographer again

Whoops, we've been caught

I know there's a bed shortage . . . but . . .

Now, dieter, when you step on that mat . . .

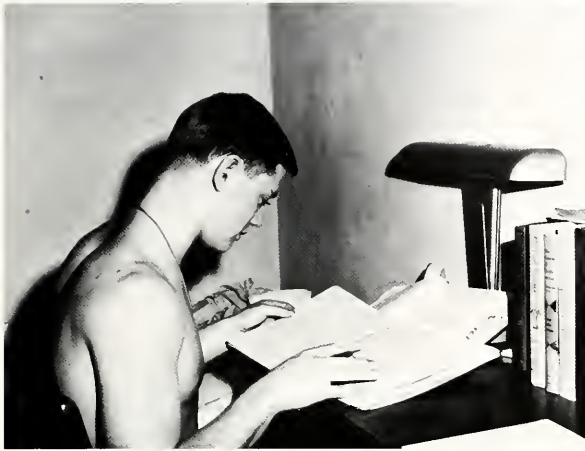

I'm supposed to understand this

"Hut" bound scholars

All these facts for just one mind

Eighty cents an hour

Mr. Smichowski is so cute!

A milk for a Mountie

Our jumping "Rabbit"

Now what was that combination?

I'll be waiting right here.

Back to the coal mines

That's quite a line up.

Here comes that noon rush hour

"Open House" cleaning

I kid you not

You mean she loves me?

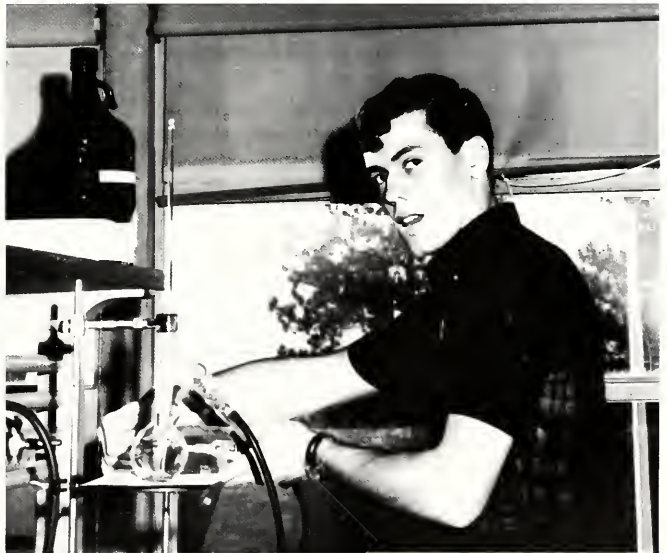

Bishop 2 to King 3.

Would you believe!

Gotta cram!

We can't make a still?

Is this another of his lines?

Can they pull it out?

But it's after hours

Look! He's watching me

It's time for a letter.

Did you send out for this?

Fascinating, aren't they?

The quest for knowledge.

T.G.I.F.

With us rests the spirit of the Mounties

What's so interesting, men?

Here's where I show him my intelligence

Are you absorbing this?

So many notes—so little time

Oh, those musical get-togethers!

The start of an all nighter

You want my autograph?

Funny you should mention that!

It's as easy as 1,2,3.

Oh, my!

What did you say?

Confrontation

Where's that school spirit, kids?

Corner watching, Coach!

Let's stir up those fans

What can happen next?

The smoke-filled room

Will the panelist please sign in?

Now where is that book?

Strong stomach muscles

Where did that third arm come from?

What a way to study

A thinker in every crowd.

Ping Pong for those leisure hours.

DELTA PHI ALPHA

Mansfield's Delta Phi Alpha, the National German Honorary Fraternity, seeks to recognize excellence in the study of the German language and to provide a goal for high scholarship.

Their aims are the promotion of the study of the German language, literature, and civilization and the emphasizing of those aspects of German life and culture which are of universal value to man's eternal search for peace and truth.

The 1966 Carontawan, chronicle of Mansfield State College, underwent several changes this year. A new publication date and a new size were the major innovations.

The new publication date enabled the staff to record the complete academic year. Commencement and other yearend activities were now depicted in the year of their occurrence.

We of the staff feel that we have done our very best to keep with the trends of these changing times. We sincerely hope that we have produced a publication that will be pleasing to the students of M.S.C.

JANE MUDGE

The editorial staff of the 1966 Carontawan would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have spent many hours in helping us make this yearbook possible.

A special note of thanks is extended to Dr. Mildred Menge and Mr. Alfred Kjelgaard, our advisors. We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. John McNaney for their help and for their excellent photography in this publication. Our sincere appreciation must be expressed to the many campus personnel who assisted us in ever so many ways.

Our staff also extends a special welcome to Mrs. Esther Jones, our future co-worker and advisor.

Jane and Ken
